More fireworks still to come in our 125th year

NOVEMBER will see the changing of the Club Captains, and a reflection of my year will be in next month's edition.

We hold our 125th Anniversary Bash on Saturday, November 3rd, when food will be provided free to all players taking part along with a fireworks finale.

The event is centered around it being a fun day both on and off the course, so members still wishing to play can sign up in the Competition's Room, details are on the Mixed Notice Board.

Last month we held our Murder Mystery Evening and what a great turnout we had - the 'Usual Suspects' are pictured below!

Thank you to the Social Committee and those co-opted for taking part, in particular to Nick Clansey for writing and producing the event.

We also hosted Malden Golf Club at the club who, like ourselves, this year are celebrating their 125 anniversary.

Thank you to Roger Mudd for organising the event, the compliments about Wellingborough received from Malden's representatives confirm what a great Golf Club we are, and one I am proud to be Captain of.

Our first quiz night was well attended and thank you to Andrew Gallagher and his assistants for a successful evening. A big thank you to all of the Wellingborough team for all their hard work, it is much appreciated.

May I wish you all good golf throughout November, given the shorter daylight hours, and thank you for your continued support.

Club Captain, Martin Wall

Tap-Ins

CLUB champion Mark Davis bounced back from his Upchurch Cup KO Final defeat to Matthew Redding as he overcame Chris Howes with two holes to spare in the Mulliner Cup KO Final.

PAUL Leeson proved too strong for Allan Wyman in the Collier Cup KO Final with a 4&3 victory, while former club champion Jamie Milligan faces Dominic Holden in the Scratch KO Final.

LEMA Townsend and Ida Jane Huggins combined brilliantly in the Ladies Fourball Betterball Trophy KO Final as they defeated Carol Gibbs and Fran Woods 5&3, while Pat Wilson beat Janet Haynes in the Ladies Singles KO Final.

DIANA Groves and Mary MacLaren were the Bronze and Silver Salver winners respectively after beating the other monthly medal winners in the annual event.

WILLIAM McArthur, Adam Perry and Bryan Morgan represented Wellingborough in the NGL Izzard Trophy as they finished fifth at Kettering GC.

ROGER Griss and wife Annette, pictured, made a successful ballroom international dancing debut in the All Ireland Open Classical Championships as they won the Modern and Classical Sequence titles. The pair, who been competing together for seven years, also took part in the British Dancing Championships in Blackpool.

COUNTBACK was needed in the October Midweek Stableford as John Arnott edged out Chris Hartley (both 40 points).

IAIN Campbell birdied the first hole on his way to winning the ninth, and last, round of the Seniors Lonsdale with 43 points.

WITH pages to fill in the Wellingborough Club Magazine, there are plenty of opportunities to advertise during the year. Please contact the Club Office to get your message across to the members and visitors in 2019.

Fun end-of-season events at home and away

LADIES Captain Mary MacLaren said: "Our Exchange Day to Scraftoft GC was a great day out. Sally (McKeown) took the helm for me as I was called upon to play elsewhere that week (more details later in the Magazine).

"The ladies had a fabulous day and were looked after superbly by the helpers at Scraftoft. My thanks to Brenda Hart for providing a similar service to the Scraftoft ladies, who enjoyed an equally great day at Wellingborough.

"A couple of members, Caroline Anstee and Rachael Owen, hosted Charity Golf Days this month. My thanks to the club for enabling these events to take place and to the members for offering such tremendous support.

"Three of our ladies were part of two County Senior Ladies Teams, which took part in the County Ladies Vets Team Championships at Luffenham Heath GC. We also had a good first evening (see photo below)!

"The tournament was a 36-hole scratch and net event with three scores from four counting each day in the team competition, while a separate individual event ran alongside.

"The team comprising of Carol Gibbs, Gill Snelson, Alison Irvine (Northampton) and myself secured the best net. Staffordshire took home the gross prize for the third year in a row. I was fortunate enough to win the individual, defeating two English Senior Home International players in the process.

"I'd like to congratulate two lovely people on their 50th Wedding Anniversary - Gerry McGrady and his wife Carol. A few of us decided to gate-crash their Anniversary 'Vow-Renewal' in Belfast and the look on their faces was definitely worth the trip.

"Not that it was any hardship as we managed a quick game or two at Portrush (2019 Open, get it in your diary now folks) and Portstewart - two superb links played in only a breath of wind; how lucky were we?!

"More thanks are due to David Clifford for our annual 'Beat the Pro' competition. As Captain it is my duty, and honour, to go off first and play with David.

"Surprisingly, despite being a member here for 15 years, I have never played golf in David's company before. We had a great game - most notably David holing his wedge on the 15th for an eagle.

"The work he puts into this event is massive. Calculating every ladies' medal score against his score in matchplay format is very time consuming, but the ladies delight in hearing how he played each hole and how they fared against their Pro. Congrats to Gill Snelson on her victory. Thank you everyone."

Who Dunnit?

Wellingborough Golf Club's Murder Mystery Night on Saturday, October 27th witnessed the unfortunate demise of Lord Chi Ken Pox (aka Nick Clansey).

A thorough investigation, involving all the suspects, followed during dinner.

Evans faces trip back to Qualifying School

RYAN Evans needs to go to Q School this month in Spain to secure full playing rights for a second successive year on the European Tour after finishing 149th on the 2018 standings.

Needing to grab first or second in the Andalucia Valderrama Masters to move into the top 115 in the rankings, the Wellingborough pro, pictured below, gave himself some hope when he made the cut with scores of 72 and 69.

With the tournament cut to three rounds due to the adverse weather conditions, Evans was unable to find the birdie streak required on the last day to surge up the leaderboard as a round of 74 left him in 42nd spot.

The 31-year-old missed the cut in the Alfred Dunhill Links at St. Andrews, Carnoustie and Kingsbarns in Scotland and the British Masters at Walton Heath GC earlier in the month.

Requiring a top 25 finish to regain his card for 2019, the final stage of Q School is scheduled to take place from November 10th at Lumine, Tarragona.

Meghan MacLaren's hopes of competing on the LPGA Tour full time next year were ended at the second stage of Q School as she missed the cut in Florida.

Chasing a top 40 finish to progress through to the last stage, the Wellingborough pro carded two rounds of level par 72 on the Bobcat course and scores of 72 and 76 on the Panther layout as she finished four shots off qualification.

MacLaren, who went to University in Florida, will still enjoy full playing rights on the Ladies European Tour next season following her win in the Women's NSW Open in Australia in early March.

Trophies are handed out at NGL Grand Final

FOUR young Wellingborough members collected prizes in the 2018 NGL Junior Order of Merit Grand Final as a successful season came to a fitting conclusion at Northants County GC.

In a year when the average field in the 10 events increased from 20 in 2017 to 52 in 2018, Jack Meakin and Olivia Barby (pictured below right and centre respectively) were crowned champions of the Boys and Girls Nine-hole Order of Merits.

Wellingborough's Ladies Scratch League winning player Ashleigh Critchley picked up the trophy for the leading Girl in the 18-hole Gross Order of Merit as well as finishing runner-up in the Grand Final to home club member Hattie Billson.

Isaac Redding (pictured below left), who made it through to the end-of-season bash after finishing ninth in the Boys Net Order of Merit, found his best form in the Grand Final as he secured the runners-up prize.

All the 44 Finalists received a season review magazine with a signature from one of the world's top golfers, while hats signed by 2018 Ryder Cup heroes Justin Rose, Francesco Molinari and Tommy Fleetwood were also won.

Junior Championship title goes to Brazier

JAMES Brazier, pictured right with Club Vice Captain George Khaw and Club President Michael Billson, kept the big numbers off his scorecard in the 2018 Junior Club Championships as he triumphed with a gross 94 over half term.

The 15-handicapper carded nothing worse than a six to beat Isaac Redding, who was part of the men's squad that won the Hollingsworth Trophy this year (pictured below right), on countback.

Brazier and Redding also came in with the leading net score of 79 alongside Hayden Honey, while Michael Hinds, Jack Meakin and Harris Chacksfield had enjoyable rounds.

Junior Club Championship part-organiser and volunteer Nigel Grimmitt said: "It was a really good day and everyone had fun and enjoyed a well presented course.

"We had decent weather for a very good field of our Junior members, who should be congratulated on playing so well, whilst enjoying the opportunity to compete."

Ready to give it a B-Ash at PGA Catalunya

WELLINGBOROUGH have a strong tradition of helping young golfers go on to county, regional, national and international success, including European Tour pros Meghan MacLaren and Ryan Evans in recent years. Ashleigh Critchley could be set to join them as she prepares for the Daily Telegraph Junior Championship Final at PGA Catalunya, Spain this month. WGC Mag chatted with the 14-year-old, who was part Wellingborough's Ladies Scratch League winning squad in 2018.

How did it feel to be part of Wellingborough's team that regained the County Ladies Scratch League?

It was really good to have the opportunity to compete for the Wellingborough Ladies against other county players. I played twice, against Hattie Billson at Northants County and Rayner Edwards at Whittlebury Park. It was good to win the league.

What did you learn from the likes of Carol Gibbs and Mary MacLaren?

The team spirit was strong and both Carol and Mary were very kind and helpful, so I learnt a lot, like improving my diet!

What kind of golfer are you like to play alongside?

I don't really get too stressed out on a golf course. In practice I chat with everyone but in tournaments I stay in my own little box.

What were your targets at the start of the year?

My handicap in January was six, now it's three, but I didn't have a handicap target, I just wanted to improve my scores and results. I wasn't that bothered about my handicap, and that's still the case. As long as I'm playing well, I'm happy.

How do you reflect on your success in 2018?

I've played well and had some good results, especially winning the Scottish Under-14s, when I shot five-under-par, and the Abraham Trophy. It was also good to win the County Girls title in late May because that got my confidence up.

You qualified for the Abraham Trophy in 2017 but finished last. Why did you win this time?

I wasn't stressed at all, it was different last year because that was my first big comp - it wasn't quite as 'scary' this time. But it did surprise me that I won because it was net, and I was one of the lowest handicappers in the field. I wasn't expecting to win, but I played some good golf.

How much did that help going into the Scottish Under-14s shortly after that event?

I felt confident going into the Scottish Under-14s, and I also played well in the practice round. So to then have my best ever round was really good.

Have the England selectors been in touch?

Yes, they were watching at both events - I was just concentrating on my golf though.

What is next for you?

My score in Scotland got me onto the leaderboard for the Daily Telegraph Final, alongside seven other girls, at PGA Catalunya, Spain on November 19th-24th. I've played overseas before but not competitively, and with this being on Sky TV, it's the next step up. It's a little bit scary, but I'm looking to play well and have a good time.

What are your ambitions for 2019?

I'd like to win the County Ladies Championships. I intend to enter more national events and a few Scottish ones because I enjoyed playing there. With my handicap, I can get into almost anything. I'm sorting out my schedule now. It starts on March 30th with the Leveret, then the Comboy Scratch, then the Scottish Under-18s at the start of April. I can't wait.

Reigning champs have to settle for third

WELLINGBOROUGH have enjoyed a proud record in NGL team events in recent years as the men, ladies and seniors have claimed the plaudits in many tournaments. With almost all the main prizes having already been handed out in 2018, this is how our teams completed their campaigns in October.

OCT 20 Men's Scratch League

Northampton 4
Wellingborough 4

WELLINGBOROUGH'S last match of the season was declared a draw without either team hitting a tee shot as both sides were already out of the title race but guaranteed to stay in the top flight for another season.

Northants County replaced Wellingborough as champions.

With the first division being reduced to five teams in 2019, Kingsthorpe and Overstone suffered relegation, while Staverton Park gained promotion.

OCT 15 Seniors friendlies

Beds & County 4½
Wellingborough 3½

ALTHOUGH five of the eight matches reached the 18th hole, Wellingborough couldn't turn enough of these tight contests in their favour as the side ended an up-and-down season with a narrow defeat.

Captain Graham Bayes, pictured left, and Richard Greenbank took the opening tie 2&1, while John Briggs and Chris Dickens were successful down the last.

But halves from Andy Charter and Peter Gannon, Graham Thompson and Iain Campbell and the final pair of Ian Jolly and Huw Rees meant the visitors couldn't stop Beds & County from snatching the overall plaudits.

WELLINGBOROUGH'S various teams will be looking forward to 2019 after they produced some excellent results this year.

A second Hollingsworth Trophy in three years went to the club as they beat Farthingstone in the final, while four Ladies Scratch League wins in four outings helped Amanda Rawson's side regain their crown after missing out in 2017.

In the Men's Intermediate League, the team made the semi's after just two losses to Collingtree and Northampton. The Ladies Intermediate team won twice to grab third in the table.

After topping their Cecil Leitch group with four wins, Wellingborough's ladies reached the semi-finals for the first time in three years, before the 'Blue Birds' lost to Northants County.

The Men's Handicap League side missed out on a spot in the last four on points difference to a Brampton Heath outfit, who went on to beat reigning champions Collingtree Park in the final.

The Junior team will also take the positives after drawing with Northampton and pushing Peterborough Milton C close in their two group matches.

Mary helps Irish retain Home Internationals

MARY MacLaren, pictured far right, was part of the Ireland team that won the 2018 Senior Ladies Home Internationals at Burnham & Berrow GC in Somerset.

Competing against the other home nations in windy conditions, the Irish came out on top on points difference from England and Scotland after the three leading sides all won two matches out of three.

Wellingborough's Ladies Captain, who missed the Exchange Day to Scrattoft to play in the event, said: "I'd never played Burnham & Berrow before but I'd heard it was a stunning links - and it didn't disappoint.

"To say it was windy the first day was a bit of an understatement but thankfully the weather improved.

"It was a very closely-contested event but Ireland took the honours, retaining their title from last year."

Dicks and Henman secure Order of Merits

CHRIS Dicks was crowned Men's Order of Merit champion for 2018 after finishing 119 points clear of the chasing pack.

With a big lead going into the last two events, Dicks cemented his position at the top of the standings by claiming seventh place in the October Medal, before finishing down the field in the Courage Cup.

Steve Hammond held on to the runners-up spot in the Order of Merit from Paul Leeson, who grabbed fourth in the October Medal.

Dave Connolly grabbed second in the Courage Cup behind Nick Clansey to move into the top 20 in the Order of Merit as Richard Izzard, Colin Armstrong and Adam Sherlock also picked up valuable points in the last event.

Kevin Henman's seventh place in the Order of Merit capped a fine year for the experienced member.

The six-handicapper (pictured) also finished with the joint-best tally in the Seniors Lonsdale Trophy, alongside Alan Lindsay, of 218 points. Andy Horn was three points adrift in third position.

Head Club Professionals: Thirteen lucky men

WITH Wellingborough Golf Club celebrating its 125th anniversary in 2018, member David Wilson investigates all the significant changes that have occurred at the Club. In the penultimate monthly article, he looks at the Professional Golfers associated with the Golf Club over this period of time.

OVER the last 125 years, Wellingborough has been served by 13 Professional Golfers.

The first 50 years saw two men give sterling service, with George Craddock becoming a legend for loyalty and hard work.

In those days, the Professional was responsible for maintaining the course with quite primitive, manual machinery (often loaned or given by a member in the very early days) as well as providing coaching and other golfing advice.

The next six Pros stayed for around a year each with Alf Lovelady from Northampton Golf Club (then at Kettering Road) giving us just one day a week.

Peter Fogg, Alf's assistant at Northampton, and the brother of Wellingborough's 1990 Lady Captain Brenda Hart was tragically killed in a traffic accident on the Mears Ashby to Wilby Road. He served the Club for four years from 1962, when he was the county's youngest pro.

The Fogg family were well known on the county golf scene at that time - Mr and Mrs Fogg were steward and stewardess at Kettering Golf Club and their eldest son was a professional in Leicestershire.

The next 17 years were covered by Rodney King (11 years), Tony Maskell, Robin Thompson and John Priestley before David Clifford, pictured left, joined the club in 1983.

David had been senior assistant at Walsall Golf Club and was a talented all-round sportsman, having had cricket trials at Trent Bridge and football trials with Derby County.

At 17, he had a handicap of four having been playing for just two years. David is a good and patient teacher of golf and joins in Club activities both on and off the course.

Recent years have seen him cope with serious back problems while still playing and coaching.

Although he never became a professional golfer, Ian Marshall played off scratch at the age of 15 and at 19 just failed by one shot to qualify for The Open.

Ian was the Club's Head Greenkeeper from 1979 to 2011 and played significant roles in Club and County golf being Club Champion six times, County Matchplay Champion in 1990 as well as being Vice President of the NGU in 1991.

The WGC members who have achieved the highest echelons on the County and National scene are too numerous to mention here - their glories are recorded and displayed on the Honours Boards in the entrance corridor.

But perhaps we should mention 2018 European Tour Professional Ryan Evans, the MacLaren family - Professional Meghan, mother Mary and father David (Seniors Tour Supremo), The Ellson family, Simon Liley, Glenda Abbott... so many men, ladies and boys and girls who have brought golfing honours to the Club and to themselves - Champions all!
