Captain: Teamwork makes the dream work

IT is an honour and a privilege to be asked to become Captain of Wellingborough Golf Club in 2019.

Thank you to Martin (Wall), Mary (MacLaren), Graham (Bayes) and Ellie (Darnell) for their great work during their respective Captain's years, and for setting up such a solid platform to follow.

With the help of new Ladies Captain Sally McKeown, Seniors Captain Peter Gannon and Juniors Captain Michael Hinds, I hope we can all work as a team.

This includes catering, bar, office, greenkeepers, professionals and shop, everyone associated with the club, but most importantly the members - we are a big community, here to enjoy our golf.

We are going to work as a team because we are custodians of the future legacy of golf. We need to maintain the tradition of golf, and make sure we have fun and enjoy it - that is the number one thing we have to do.

I want to be inclusive - golf should be inclusive. Hopefully we can have the men's and ladies members enjoying golf together with the seniors and juniors - I'm going to put some effort into helping the juniors.

I'm very lucky because the bunker project is now completed, so we will have a full year of playing the course with the new bunkers. Although the 125th anniversary was a very important celebration, and very well organised, there is no distraction this year, so I can concentrate on golf for everyone.

My handicap is currently 13, but by the end of the year it is probably going to be rubbish! Mind you, I'm on the Handicap Committee!

In all seriousness, I'm going to play a lot of golf this year, because undoubtedly I will receive a number of invitations from different sections within the club and from outside the club. So there will be some official duties I need to perform, but I will enjoy the golf and try and find time to play most, but not all, of them.

I have already put some plans in place over the last year with my work so that it can be handled by other people, so I can enjoy my golf.

We have to come together as a team and a community, so away we go - let's enjoy it!

2019 Club Captain, George Khaw

Local community is set to benefit this year

NEW Club Captains George Khaw and Sally McKeown have both selected organisations that help the community in the local region as their charities for the coming year.

Wellibus is the choice of the Club Captain for the coming year, while Headway is the Ladies Captain's Charity for the next 12 months.

Khaw explained: "Wellingborough WelliBus look after people who have no contacts whatsoever with the outside world and are trapped in their own homes.

"Wellibus provide a bus service, a taxi service, a hospital appointment service, shopping service and also transport for luncheon clubs.

"I think Wellingborough should be looking after the local community because the national charities receive support from everywhere - so I wanted to keep it local.

"Hopefully we can raise some money on my Captain's Charity Day on June 22nd and my Captain's Away Weekend at Hilton Puckrup Hall, Tewkesbury, from July 12th.

"Sally's charity is Headway, which is also a local community project. They helps people who have brain injuries and also their family members and carers. It is another worthy cause."

Tap-Ins

A GOLF buggy was the mode of transport for Santa to arrive at Harrowden Hall just before Christmas as he handed out presents, with the help of his elves, to all the boys and girls attending the Kids Christmas Party.

THE revised Rules of Golf come into force from January 1st, 2019. Collect a new book from the Competitions Room.

GRAHAM Bayes, David Robinson and Andrew Charter were the team to beat in the Seniors Christmas Scramble as they led the scoring with a total of net 67.2.

SIXTY points was the best score in the Ladies Christmas Tea Competition as Miriam Johnson and Mollie Graham joined in-form duo Pat Dawson and Janet Gower to grab top spot.

AN early opportunity to test the new golf equipment, clothing or goods received as Christmas presents is being offered to members with men's, ladies, seniors and mixed competitions taking place in January. For more details visit the Club website.

KEVIN Turner, Steve Hammond, Richard Brown and Tiger Adams won the Men's Winter Texas Scramble by half a stroke.

MEMBERS are advised to get their names down quickly for a special Seafood Theme Night taking place on February 9th. Bookings are being taken directly by catering. Please email catering@wellingboroughgolfclub.com or ring 01933 677234, option 3.

LADIES Club Champion Carol Gibbs was in superb form during December as she took the honours in the Ladies 'Odd Holes Count Double' Stableford before combining with Janet Gower and Pat Dawson to win the Ladies Bottle Trot.

YOU don't have to wait too long to test your knowledge in 2019 as the popular Quiz Night returns on January 25th. The booking form is in the Competitions Room. Food is available from 6.15pm.

WITH pages to fill in the Wellingborough Club Magazine, there are plenty of opportunities to advertise during the year. Please contact the Club Office to get your message across to the members and visitors in 2019.

Hard act to follow, but looking forward to it

NEW Ladies Captain Sally McKeown said: "I wasn't nervous at all for the AGM, and my Captain's Drive-In, because I had done as much preparation as I could. Now I'm looking forward to my year.

"I was amazed when Mary (MacLaren) asked me to become her Vice Captain, with a view to taking over. I'd done a few years on the County Committee, but not at all on the Club Committee, so it came totally out of the blue. But I thought about it briefly, and accepted willingly.

"I had a really good year as Vice Captain, and have got far more involved in the Club - it has been good to see how the Club works. I was quite surprised by how many people put so many hours into making the Club what it is.

"I now realise the amount of work that goes on behind the scenes, things that many members wouldn't be aware of, and I've learnt more about the other sections at the Club. Perhaps I knew a little more about the juniors beforehand, but it's been useful to see how things tick over.

"We established a new friendly with The Leicestershire last year, which I felt went well, and we have added matches with Woburn away and Luffenham Heath at home this coming year. The reverse fixture will be the following year.

"My Charity is Headway, which is based in Irthlingborough. It's a place where people go if they have had head injuries or brain problems, which could be through a road accident or a stroke or something else.

"It is where people can go to talk through any problems they have, there are various activities, the staff take them on days out, it is where they can meet other people and be helped if they have problems through losing their job or whatever, there is an opportunity to discuss this.

"Just like Club Captain George (Khaw), it was very important to go with a local charity. National charities are worthy causes, but often the donations get swallowed up and don't always get to the people you are trying to help.

"Last year's Captains Martin (Wall) and Mary will be a hard act to follow but we are starting our year on a good basis and I am now looking forward to working with George in the year ahead.

"There is nothing specific that I will be looking to do this year in the ladies section, just do it in my own way. But I feel confident that we will all work well together as a team."

THE Captain's Drive-In on Sunday, December 2nd didn't exactly go to plan with the new Men's, Ladies, Senior's and Junior's Captains hitting their opening shots simultaneously on a shotgun start... or at least, they were supposed to!

2018 Review: Anniversary year to remember

WITH Wellingborough Golf Club opening up its new redeveloped golf course whilst celebrating its 125th anniversary in 2018, the last 12 months has been a memorable time for everyone associated with the Club. In the next few pages, the WGC Magazine looks at some highlights of the last year.

ANDY Redding and Isaac Redding were successful in the Kelly Bowls competition on New Year's Day after posting 40 points. Martin Noons and Tim Coleman (39) secured second place on countback from Steven Hammond and Cliff Evans.

STEVE Hughes began the Seniors Lonsdale Stableford Series in the best possible way as he topped the standings in the first round with 39 points. Andy Horn (38) was second by one from Graham Bayes.

CLUB professional Meghan MacLaren (pictured) secured her first win on the Ladies European Tour with a magnificent victory at the New South Wales Open in Australia. The Tour rookie carded scores of 71, 67, 65 and 71 to finish two shots clear of the chasing pack.

Loz Weekes enjoyed the wait to compete in the Courage Cup as he grabbed victory with 39 points.

Countback was required in the March Medal after Andy Wheatley and Nick Ward both came in with the leading score of net 72. Wheatley's better finish proved decisive.

CLUB professional Kyson Lloyd secured his playing card for the 2018 season on the PGA EuroPro Tour after finishing joint-third in final qualifying at Frilford Heath GC, Oxfordshire.

Forty one points was Paul Leeson's winning tally in the Handley Cup as he edged out Matthew Redding on countback.

Dan Barker led the Lombard qualifying scoring after carding the best round of net 68 in the April Medal. The 16-handicapper also won the Medal Winner Salver.

Liz Rees and Pat Dawson were the pair to catch in the Ladies Australian Spoons Foursomes Stableford, while Graham Flawn beat the course by three holes to lift the Miller Cup.

ELLIE Darnell was crowned NGL County Ladies Champion after triumphing on her home course at Wellingborough GC. The 17-year-old beat Rosie Youngman (Northampton) in the final.

Wellingborough maintained their perfect start to the Ladies Cecil Leitch season as they recorded their third victory in three outings with a thrilling 4-3 away success at Priors Hall.

Club professional Ryan Evans recorded his best finish on the European Tour for almost two years as he collected a share of 11th prize in the Rocco Forte Sicilian Open in Italy.

Wellingborough's redesigned golf course, and strong winds, proved a stern test for the golfers in the NPGA Winter Series Pro-Am as Peterborough Milton's Adam Chamberlain was the only pro to match the par of 72.

Michael Campbell showed his class over 36 holes at Wellingborough GC as he clinched the NGL Open.

Afternoon birdies on the 12th, 13th, 16th and 17th holes helped the Kettering pro card a five-under-par total.

Convincing wins from Carol Gibbs and Ellie Darnell, plus another point from Mary MacLaren, helped Wellingborough start the Ladies Scratch League in style as they whitewashed Northampton.

Wellingborough had no problem getting their Handicap League campaign off to a winning start as they stormed to a 17-0 home victory against Oundle.

Five strokes was an impressive margin of victory for Tim Coleman in the May Medal as he topped the standings in the Mulliner Cup Qualifier with a brilliant net 64.

Yvonne Jolly lifted the Ladies Gilbert Bowl after beating Sue Dodd by a single point, while Andy Sanders clinched the VE Cup with an excellent round of net 67.

2018 Review: Prizes for Chris, Bina and Peter

WELLINGBOROUGH pro Ryan Evans competed in his first overseas major event after taking part in the US Open on the brutal Shinnecock Hills layout.

Despite receiving some words of advice from former champion Rory McIlroy (pictured right) on the eve of the tournament, the 31-year-old missed the cut with two scores of 78.

Ashleigh Critchley got the better of fellow Wellingborough Ladies Scratch League member Ellie Darnell in a two-hole play-off to win the NGL Girls Championship at Oundle GC. The duo tied for first place on 155 after 36 holes.

Harrowden Hall was the venue as Northamptonshire men's first team secured their first victory in a successful Anglian League campaign in 2018 with a comprehensive 8½-3½ win against Norfolk.

Wellingborough's men bounced back to form after a slow start to their Scratch League title defence as they recorded two home wins against Kingsthorpe and Overstone Park, before grabbing a draw at Peterborough Milton.

Ten net birdies were on the winning scorecard of Ida Jane Huggins and Lema Townsend in the NGL Ladies Fourball Betterball as the Wellingborough duo triumphed with 43 points at Peterborough Milton GC.

Adam Perry never looked back after shooting three birdies on the front nine in the June Medal as he led the Izzard Trophy qualifying with a net 68.

Former skipper Glenn Harris found form on Captain's Day as he took the honours on Martin Wall's big day by one from Mark Rashley with 40 points.

2018 Review: Ladies reclaim Scratch League

Leslie Hornby took the net plaudits on countback from Richard Munns, Nick Sanders lifted the Charles Griffiths Bowl by four, while Gary Bishop won the Rabbits Cup by a shot from Mark Nesbitt.

Carol Gibbs was crowned Ladies Club Champion for the eighth time as she held off the challenge of fellow County Scratch team members Ashleigh Critchley, Mary MacLaren and Ellie Darnell.

Margaret Payne and Val Cooke, who also won the Coales Cups with Martin Evans, lifted the Bronze gross and net titles respectively.

Miriam Johnson retained the NGL Ladies Intermediate title after finishing three ahead of the field with a gross 84 at Kettering GC. June Smith finished runner-up in the Bronze Championship.

Wellingborough qualified for the Ladies Cecil Leitch semi-finals in thrilling fashion as they defeated overnight leaders Staverton Park 5-2 at home.

Harris Chacksfield emphasised his promise by lifting the Junior Ladies Cup with a net 70, while fellow youngster James Brazier clinched both the Waples Plate and Juniors Veterans Cup.

Scratch teamers Jamie Milligan and Duncan Cornish showed their class in the Lee Dalton Trophy as they posted the winning mark of net 66.

WELLINGBOROUGH retained their Ladies Scratch League crown with one match still to play as they romped to their third successive whitewash victory, beating Overstone Park 3-0 at Whittlebury Park GC. Ellie Darnell, Carol Gibbs and Team Captain Amanda Rawson bagged the points.

Meghan MacLaren made the cut in a major tournament for the first time at the Women's British Open at Royal Lytham and St Annes GC.

The Club pro then secured a silver and bronze medal for Great Britain in the inaugural European Golf Team Championships on the European Tour at Gleneagles GC.

Carol Gibbs and Gill Snelson combined with Northampton's Susan Potter and Julie Ribano to win the NGL Ladies Fourball Am-Am at Harlestone.

A 28-3 home thrashing of Staverton Park in the Handicap League wasn't quite enough for Wellingborough to secure a place in the semi's as they missed out in Group C on points difference.

Ashleigh Critchley's reputation continued to grow as the Abraham Trophy winner carded a course record at Murrayfield GC on her way to clinching the Scottish Girls Under-14 Open Championship by eight shots over 36 holes.

Home club members Jack Meakin and Olivia Barby enjoyed success in the nine-hole competitions in the Wellingborough Junior Open.

Defeats in the last three ties ended Wellingborough's hopes of reaching the NGL Ladies Cecil Leitch final as they were beaten 5-2 by Northants County in their last-four contest at Brampton Heath GC.

Mary MacLaren and Carol Gibbs showed their class again in the Midlands South Ladies Fourball Betterball at the Cotswolds Club with a gross 69.

Nick Clansey, Kevin Henman, Neil Redding and Loz Weekes grabbed the plaudits on President's Day with a magnificent team tally of 126 points.

Lawrence Berryman and Rachael Owen won the Mixed Club Championships on net 69.2, Liz Beaumont and Pat White led the Ladies American Foursomes on 39 points, while Colin Armstrong picked up the George Cup thanks to a two-round total of net 137.

2018 Review: Next generation bag NGL titles

Olivia Barby grabbed the top spot in the Girls section.

Wellingborough couldn't prevent Collingtree Park from making it seven NGL Intermediate League games without defeat as the team lost 6-2 in the semi-finals.

Tiger Adams progressed into the final of the NGL Scratch Matchplay Singles after beating fellow youngster Luis

Witherall (Northants County) on the 18th hole in the last four.

Wellingborough completed a gross and net double in the NGL Ladies Senior Championship as Carol Gibbs and Ida Jane Huggins grabbed the top prizes at Silverstone GC.

Gibbs birdied the 18th to snatch a one shot victory from club-mate Mary MacLaren, while Huggins finished a single stroke clear in the net category.

Home duo Ricky Sanders and Glenn Harris used all their local knowledge over the back nine to seal victory in the NGL Seniors Open at Wellingborough GC as they triumphed on countback with 41 points.

Roger Butler, Richard Brown, Tiger Adams and Jamie Milligan enjoyed comfortable wins for Wellingborough's Scratch Team as they guaranteed top flight golf next season with a home whitewash of Peterborough Milton.

Wellingborough's Ladies ended their Scratch League winning season with a fourth victory in four matches as they defeated Northants County 2-1 at Northampton GC.

JAMES Brazier kept the big numbers off his scorecard in the 2018 Junior Club Championships as he triumphed on countback from Isaac Redding. Rio Mullett clinched the nine-hole title.

Ryan Evans was unable to gain full playing rights on the European Tour for 2019 as he completed his season by finishing 148th on the 2018 standings.

Meghan MacLaren's hopes of competing on the 2019 LPGA Tour full time were ended at the second stage of Q School as she missed the cut in Florida.

Nick Clansey needed countback to beat Dave Connolly and Nigel Grimmitt in the Courage Cup after all three came in with 38 points.

Two strokes was the difference between first and second positions in the Medal Winners Salver as Carl Leeson took the honours ahead of Martin Rose with a net 70.

TIGER Adams (pictured below) overcame a recent stint in hospital to clinch the last NGL title of 2018 with a 5&4 victory in the Scratch Singles Final over Northants County's Owen Watts.

Ryan Evans missed out on a 2019 European Tour card in the final stage of Q School in Spain. The Wellingborough professional gave himself one last hope of securing one of 27 cards as he made the cut with scores of 67, 71, 73 and 68, but closing rounds of 72 and 69 meant he will need to concentrate on the European Challenge Tour next season.

GLENN Harris, Chris Billson, Steve Hammond and Charlie Higgins were successful in the Captain's Drive-In competition as the team triumphed on countback after posting a score of 88 points.
