So much golfing fun on travels and at home

THANKS to everyone who attended my day out at Woburn Golf Club. Helped by the fact that we had beautiful weather and the host club were so welcoming to our party, it was a great day!

Well done to Vice Captain Dave Hawkins for selling raffle tickets, with the first prize of a three-litre bottle of Jack Daniel's going to John McGowan. Other prizes included Woburn shirts and golf balls.

The competition prize winners on a glorious day were Richard Reynolds, who matched his handicap to squeeze a single point ahead of runner-up Andy Wainwright and third-placed Nick Clansley, who also 'smashed' the longest drive. Chris Reading finished a further point back in fourth position.

Kevin Knight, Bryn Morgan, Mike Gilbrook and Wainwright collected the team prize, the nearest-the-pin on the third hole went to Lawrence Berryman, while Richard Izzard was closest-in-two on the 18th.

The complimentary bar in the coach was well supported!! And upon arrival back at the clubhouse, our own bar also provided a perfect opportunity to chill and relax.

Our club teams have begun their season, with the Hollingsworth side doing well in the defence of their title.

With two wins out of three - we hope this continues into the final group match on May 12th at Whittlebury Park GC.

We would also like to wish the Handicap League team all the best as they start their campaign with an away match at Oundle on May 2nd.

The seniors team were beaten by Oundle recently, so let's hope we can avenge that loss.

At the other end of the age scale, it has been lovely to see the boys and girls (pictured above) taking part in the Junior nine-hole competitions in March and April. Well done to Nigel Grimmit for his efforts.

Thanks to June and Martyn Smith for their organisation on the Bank Holiday Monday Mixed Competition. Libby and I enjoyed the event very much.

Our next outing will be the Captain's Away Weekend on July 12th-14th at Hilton Puckrup Hall, Tewksbury. If you would like to join us, please email me at georgekhaw@btconnect.com. £300 Sharing or £350 Single - golf, room and meals.

Please enjoy your golf and be lucky - stay away from the Captain's Bunker and Out of Bounds on the 18th Hole.

2019 Club Captain, George Khaw

Club receives thumbs up from 2018 charities

WELLINGBOROUGH Golf Club's members, friends and relatives were praised for their generosity after two cheques for £4,823 were handed over to two local charities.

Frank Sudlow, trustee of the MS Therapy Centre for Beds and Northamptonshire, received the second cheque from the two past Captains (pictured above).

MacLaren said: "Both Karen and Frank were delighted with their cheques. Many thanks to all those who helped make this such a successful year for our chosen charities."

Tap-Ins

NEIL Redding beat the course by six holes to lift the Miller Cup as he edged out Tony Wheatley on countback in the bogey competition. Neil Smith and Loz Weekes were next on five up.

CIARAN Eeles made an excellent start to the Friday Evening Golf season as he carded the best score of 22 and 23 points in the opening two events. The in-form member also finished second and third in the two April Medals.

NINE-handicapper Philip Saxby produced the outstanding round in the April Medal as he fired a superb net 65 to triumph by two.

MEGHAN MacLaren is competing over 36 holes against a strong field of golfers in qualifying for the US Women's Open at The Buckinghamshire GC on Tuesday, May 7th.

SIMON Lilly is hoping for some positive memories when the 2019 NPGA Winter Series Order of Merit leader returns to Wellingborough for the Pro-Am on Thursday, May 9th. Current Club pros David Clifford and James Whittemore are also playing.

GLEN Gulla, Lawrence Berryman, Steve Crawley, Glenn Harris, Charlie Higgins, Carl Martin, Stuart Philip and Ricky Sanders will represent Wellingborough in the opening 2019 County Men's OOM event as the Higgs Bowl takes place at Delapre on Saturday, May 4th.

FORMER winners Carol Gibbs and Mary MacLaren join fellow Wellingborough members Ida Jane Huggins, Amanda Rawson and Ashleigh Critchley for the NGL Ladies County Championships at Overstone GC on May 10th-12th. Reigning champ Ellie Darnell will not defend her title.

IF you need to withdraw from a competition after entries have closed, please make sure you contact the Pro Shop.

More success for Jack, Isaac and Olivia

Despite playing off the white tees in the final match, the nine-year-old (pictured second from left) overcame some early nerves to combine superbly with fellow new boy Aiden Jaggard to grab a 3&2 win.

Back at the club, Olivia Barby continued her magnificent start to the Junior Nine-hole Order of Merit as she made it four wins in four outings as she grabbed the honours in both April competitions.

After clinching top spot in the mid-month event with a breathtaking score of 27 points, the in-form member was also successful in late April with a tally of 18 points.

With Olivia, who won the 2018 NGL Girls Nine-hole Order of Merit, seeing her handicap cut to 36 after claiming third in the Junior 18-hole comp in April, she has now been invited to take part in ladies events by Ladies Captain Sally McKeown.

Getting the communication right with the juniors at Wellingborough

WELLINGBOROUGH Golf Club have always been very proud of our Junior Section, which has seen many top class club and county golfers come through from a young age.

We aim to give all of our current and future junior members the best chance of improving their golf.

Therefore, we are offering coaching programmes as well as the opportunity to represent the club at local and county based matches and tournaments.

This is all for a very realistic £75 membership fee.

We are currently developing a Junior Strategy and Action Plan to drive the development of junior golf within the club environment in order to encourage and promote junior golf now and in the future.

The aim is to grow and sustain a vibrant junior section, provide a structure for junior development and participation within the club environment and establish a reputation for excellence locally, across the county and nationally. We want to be referenced as a model for junior membership.

We recently set up a Junior Whatsapp Group to enable our juniors to arrange individual matches, promote forthcoming club matches and to provide a forum to keep up to date with the latest developments.

Our Sunday Stableford competitions are proving to be a great success with players, parents and organisers enjoying being part of a fun afternoon of golf.

We believe our golf facilities and development initiatives are a positive platform in which to promote and encourage potential new junior members.

We are seeking the support from all club members to actively encourage children from within their immediate families, friends and associates to join the Wellingborough GC Junior section, helping us to expand our current junior membership into a flourishing and future academy of excellence.

Please contact the David Waite for membership applications or junior section organiser Nigel Grimmitt on 07889 785322 for general info.

Hats off to those involved in Prizegiving Day

LADIES Captain Sally McKeown said: "Last year's Ladies Captain Mary MacLaren kindly organised the Ladies Winter League.

"We all paid £5 to take part, then paid £1 to enter each scorecard over nine holes, with the best scores counting towards the team total.

"We had been drawn into teams each identified by the name of a hat. At the beginning of April, we held the prizegiving at a dinner, where we all dressed according to the name of our teams (some pictured).

"Judging by the amount of noise in the room, everybody was having a good time. All of the money raised was donated to Headway, my charity.

"I had the first of my big days as Lady Captain on Tuesday, April 16th with the Spring Meeting.

"The weather was perfect, the food was excellent and everybody seemed to have a good day, so my sincere thanks to all of those who worked hard to make the event a success. And congratulations to all of the winners.

"Congrats also to the Intermediate team who won their opening match against Peterborough Milton, who won the competition last year. More details are on page nine, so onwards and upwards ladies!

"Good luck also to the Cecil Leitch team who will be playing their first match early in May. I have full confidence in Miriam's Ladybirds!

"The friendly matches have started, with Kibworth visiting Wellingborough early in April - sadly the match was won by the away side.

"Woburn ladies are also visiting Wellingborough for the first time, for a friendly fixture early in May, so I look forward to that match, and us playing at Woburn next year."

Home winning streak hits 10 in Hollingsworth

WELLINGBOROUGH have enjoyed a proud record in NGL team competitions in recent years as the men, ladies and seniors have claimed the plaudits in county league tournaments. With the 2019 campaign now underway, this is how our teams have started the season.

NGL Hollingsworth Trophy - Group D

Rushden 1

Chris Billson and Richard Brown (4&2), Tim Veal and Martin Dalton (3&2) and Richard Munns and Tiger Adams, pictured left (5&4) ensured Wellingborough, whose last defeat on the own course in the competition came back in August 2014, bagged their second win in three outings this season.

With points difference possibly being crucial in the battle for a semi-final place, Rushden took the second game but Wellingborough replied with a 3&2 victory for Jon Harris and Mark Davis in the last match to ensure the team stay top of the Group D standings.

Sunday, May 12th:
Whittlebury v Wellingborough.
Northampton v Kingsthorpe.

Saturday, May 25th:
Rushden v Northampton.

Group D	P	W	L	PF	PA	PD	Pts
Wellingborough	3	2	1	10	5	5	4
Kingsthorpe	3	2	1	10	5	5	4
Northampton	2	1	1	5	5	0	2
Rushden	3	1	2	5	10	-5	2
Whittlebury	3	1	2	5	10	-5	2

NGL Ladies Intermediate League

Peterborough Milton 1
Wellingborough 2

WELLINGBOROUGH made a brilliant start to their 2019 campaign as they recorded a narrow victory over the reigning champions, who won four out of four matches last season.

Miriam Johnson grabbed the first point with an emphatic 5&4 success and although Milton took the last tie on the 18th, it was only after Gill Snelson (pictured) had sealed the Wellingborough plaudits by beating Angela Roper by one hole.

Is Solheim Cup spot on the horizon for Meghan?

MEGHAN MacLaren has set her sights on clinching a place in the European team for the 2019 Solheim Cup contest against the USA after continuing her strong start to the season.

The Wellingborough professional backed up her victory in the New South Wales Open in March with a superb runners-up finish in the Jordan Open as she battled it out with male golfers from the European Challenge and Seniors Tours.

After picking up valuable points in her bid to secure an automatic qualifying place, MacLaren's excellent form has alerted team captain Catriona Matthew, who will add four more players to her squad for the match on September 13th.

MacLaren said: "When I woke up on the Sunday morning after the event at Jordan, I had quite a lot of messages on my phone, but one was from a number I didn't have saved.

"It said 'Hi Meghan, it's Beeney (Catriona Matthew), congratulations on your result.' It was unexpected but also quite nice that the Solheim Captain was thinking of me. I'd not had any message before, but it's very early days and she has a lot of people she needs to keep her eye on.

"But just the fact I got a text from her is pretty inspiring really. It's nice to know that I'm on her radar and it will only make me work harder over the coming few months."

Fellow Club Professional Kyson Lloyd enjoyed a brilliant end to his competitive trip to the middle east as he bagged a treble success in the Titleist Black Tee Pro-Am at Saadiyat Beach GC, in the UAE.

The Wellingborough professional, pictured right, smashed the course record on the 7,806 yard layout with a magnificent five-under-par 67 as he won the individual event by four, as well as the team prize.

Lloyd, who made it through MENA Tour Qualifying School in February, had struggled initially during the off-season as he missed the cut in the first four tournaments of the series, before finishing 43rd in the Royal Golf Bahrain Open.

Wellingborough's Ryan Evans begins his European Challenge Tour season with the Spanish Challenge Open on May 2nd, before he competes in the first of two events in the Czech Republic the following week.

Ged and Andrew seal last four spot in extra time

The duo needed to call on all their battling qualities as they grabbed the plaudits in a tight quarter-final with Tony Wheatley and Stuart Philip on the 21st hole.

Paul Webber and Robin Everard beat Alan Lindsay and Nick Reed to set up a semi-final against Wayne Partridge and Daniel Nixson or Jamie Jones and Matthew Francklow.

The last four line-up in the Fish Plates is complete with Andrew Grimmitt and Stephen Etheridge taking on Craig Evans and Roy Pouncey, while Lee Gardner and Peter Linnitt go head-to-head with Tim Coleman and Colin Armstrong.

Roger Griss was the first player through to the last 16 of the Collier Cup after beating Alan Bird with holes to spare in their second round match.

Stuart Philip was the most impressive winner so far in the second round of the Upchurch Cup as he completed a 5&4 success against Dan Filios.

Grimmitt booked his place in round two, alongside Neil Smith, Mark Smart, Mark Lovesay and Glen Gulla, who defeated Tiger Adams on the penultimate hole.

Gulla and partner Lawrence Berryman were also successful in the opening round of the Grey Jones Coffa TLWS.

Adams, meanwhile, did well to narrowly avoid another KO defeat as he combined with Richard Brown to beat Paul Leeson and Carl Leeson on the second extra hole.

Alan Grey and Tony Camsell joined them in the second round, alongside the pairing of Paul Albery and Neil Redding, who defeated John Cowper and Glenn Harris on the last hole.

In the Watson Cup second round, Andrew Bush got the better of Stuart Philip on the 18th, while in-form Grimmitt and Smith were once again successful.

Johnson beats Doubles partner in Singles final

MIRIAM Johnson lifted the first ladies knockout prize of the year as she edged out doubles partner Gill Rivers on the 18th in the Collier Bowl final.

After beating Mary MacLaren 4&3 in her semi-final tie of the winter competition, Johnson (pictured) did just enough to defeat Rivers, who couldn't quite replicate her magnificent form in the last four when she comfortably beat Patricia Dawson.

Last year's Ladies Captain MacLaren is still involved in the Illingsworth Foursomes after progressing through to the last four alongside Gill Snelson. Gill Spencer and Carol Gibbs are the only other pair through to the semi's.

In the Ladies Handicap Cup, Susan Kellett beat Geraldine Bunyan 3&2 to set up a last 16 meeting with Anne Evans.

Seniors grab first wins at home and away

APRIL
2 Seniors Friendlies
John O'Gaunt 2
Wellingborough 6

THE first seniors away outing of the season witnessed a first victory as the team produced an excellent result at the Bedfordshire course.

Wellingborough captain Peter Gannon and Graham Bayes set the tone with a 4&3 victory, David Rawson and John Briggs doubled the lead on the 18th, before Peter Davies and Gerard Bristow took game three on the penultimate hole.

John O'Gaunt responded with a couple of 4&3 wins, but the visitors kept their composure as Graham Thompson and Richard Briggs, pictured below, triumphed down the last.

Peter Hooton and Steve Maycock secured a big victory before David Wynn and Huw Rees completed the scoring with a 2&1 success.

APRIL
10 Wellingborough 7½
Gog Magog ½

DAVID Birkett and Richard Briggs (9&8) and Edward Roderick and John Briggs (7&6) were the standout performers as Wellingborough came agonisingly close to a perfect home debut.

Peter Gannon and Ian Jolly, Andrew Charter and John Arnott and the penultimate pairing of Peter Hall and Huw Rees all came good on the 17th hole, while the other three games went the distance.

Although Iain Campbell and Chris Dickens in game four and Bob Lewis and Richard Greenbank in the final tie were both successful for the hosts, Graham Bayes and Steve Maycock had to settle for a half in their match.

APRIL
17 Market Harborough 6
Wellingborough 2

WELLINGBOROUGH'S winning run came to an end in the team's third outing of the year as the away side were well beaten in south Leicestershire.

David Birkett and Andrew Charter (2&1) and Edward Roderick and Graham Thompson (5&4) were the only successful visiting partnerships as five of the other six points were claimed by Harborough before reaching the 18th tee.

That's one EI of a start to Lonsdale for Phil

PHIL Elwick has surged into a six-point lead at the top of the Seniors Lonsdale standings after grabbing his third podium finish in the three competitions so far in the 2018/19 Winter Series.

After carding the equal second best tally of 36 points in the opening round, Elwick was runner-up in the February comp with 39 points, before he bagged the joint-leading mark of 40 points alongside Nigel Sargent in round three.

Graham Thompson, pictured right, is the closest challenger with two scores of 36 points, and a 37, while David Birkett is a further point off the pace.

Ian Ferris (103), Brian Summers (103) and Kevin Meagher (102) are the only other seniors beyond the century mark going into the fourth round of the tournament in early May.

Full Set with... George Khaw

IN the latest of a series of Q&A features with various members of the Club Staff and Committee over the coming months, Wellingborough Golf Club Magazine chatted with the man who is skipper at Harrowden Hall during the next 12 months - just remember that when you're sipping his beer!

D

What is your full job title?
Wellingborough Golf Club Captain 2019.

R

What is your job?
I'm qualified as an accountant, but I also run a small residential home.

3

When did you start playing golf?
Thirty years ago, in 1989.

4

What is your golf handicap?
At the moment 13.4, but rising!

5

Which professional golfer does your swing most resemble?

What is your guilty pleasure?

What are your best and worst moments on the golf course?
Still waiting for the best, but the worst was when I nearly fell in the pond on the third hole - it was deep! Having said that, I have enjoyed every round of golf.

My perfect fourball?

Hawaii.

P

If you won the lottery, what is the first thing you would do?
Buy a local football team.

W

What is the funniest thing you have seen on a golf course?

L

Which golf course would you most want to play?
Obviously Wellingborough, but my second choice would probably be the Dukes course at Woburn. I went there recently, but I'd love to go back.

S

Who is the most interesting person you have played golf with?
A boxer called Dave 'Boy' Green. He fought Sugar Ray Leonard and had some very interesting stories as we were going around here.

P

What is the daftest work-related question you have ever been asked?
It's not a question, but an action. I was interviewing a new member last week and when I put my beer down, he drank it! So he's only allowed to join the Club, once he's bought me a new beer! ;)
