100th Edition

Cheers to all for supporting my 'big day'

FOR my Captain's Day on June 22nd, I am so relieved that we had such fine weather following a period of very wet days. We were worried how we can accommodate the band and hog roast indoors but it turned out we had both outdoors.

The course was in immaculate condition, thanks to the hard work of the Course Committee and Green Staff. Thanks to the members for many months of patient acceptance of work that needed to be done for the course to be as good as it is now.

I hope the members enjoyed the refreshments at the halfway house and thank you for your generous contributions to the Captains' Charities. It was my pleasure to travel round the course to provide refreshments to participants and I apologise if I did not get to you.

The evening hog roast was delicious and plentiful, and there were fantastic renditions of popular music performed by a duo known as "Back When We Had Hair", which kept some of us dancing into the night. Thank you to those who helped make it a special day, and especially those who took part.

It's been a busy month on the social side, with the Jazz Afternoon and the Summer Ball.

The Jazz Afternoon was a private fund-raising event organised by Brian Joyce, Roger Mudd and Peter Clarke of the Zoo Keepers, for the benefit of Mind Kelly Matters, Captains' Charities and Funding for Aspiring Young Golfers. Fillet of Soul provided some fantastic music, we had brilliant food and the waiting staff did us proud.

The Summer Ball was also a great success. Thanks to all 114 who attended and for their support. Thanks to Ben Hood on drums, Jaime on lead guitar and Tom on double bass, playing digestive music while we are having our meals. Bill Burton Disco did us proud with his dance floor fillers and a great evening was had by all.

Thanks to Wellingborough Strictly Dancers for opening the disco with our dance act - Libby, David and Jo Hawkins, Roy and Annette Pouncey, Andy Gallagher and me! Dancing to Psy Gangnam Style - there were more people on the dance floor than off the dance floor, most of the time.

The flowers were beautiful and added class to the occasion, while people were fetching drinks from the clubhouse and staying in the marquee and not in the bar, which made the occasion special.

Enjoy your golf and be lucky - stay away from the Captain's Bunker and Out of Bounds on the 18th Hole.

Jazzing up the Ball with Mustang Sally

LADIES Captain Sally McKeown said: "Many thanks to the Zoo Keepers, and particularly Roger Mudd and Brian Joyce (pictured below) for organising the Jazz afternoon in June.

"I believe that somewhere around the £7,000 mark was raised during the afternoon, with the proceeds being donated to my charity, Headway, and George's charity, Wellibus and Mind.

"It was a most enjoyable afternoon. The weather had been awful during the week leading up to the event, but the sun shone and everybody seemed to have a really good time.

"The Summer Ball was yet another very good event at Harrowden Hall.

"I was delighted that my nephew Ben had been asked to come and play music during the meal. Ben brought his friends, Tom and Jamie (all pictured below), and they played some Jazz and other music. Bill Burton was the DJ, and was good fun, as always.

"Thank you to those who helped spring a surprise during the Captains' first dance. What fun we had!

"During June, the Ladies had their Invitation Day, so a big thank you to all who helped make the day a huge success.

"Our attention now turns to July, and I'm looking forward to it because we have some big days. On the social side we have the Party in the Gardens on Saturday, July 20th, and on the golf course we have Lady Captain's Day and the Ladies Club Championship.

"The course is looking superb, enjoy your golf, and let us hope for good weather over the coming weeks."

Hats a great message from Ryan about skin care

WELLINGBOROUGH Golf Club's Tour Professional Ryan Evans has spoken out about the need for golfers to protect their skin after going through a cancer scare a few years ago.

Speaking to the European Challenge Tour website, the 32-year-old admits it was something that had not even crossed his mind, until an innocent conversation with his mum at home.

Evans said: "She said to me, 'you've got a bit of dirt in your ear' and I know it sounds silly, but when I looked in, I had a big mole that I'd never seen before.

"I kept an eye on it, and over the next couple of months it grew and grew, and I thought 'that's not normal' so I went to my doctor, and within two weeks he'd sent me to a dermatologist at my local hospital. Three weeks after that, it was cut out.

"When I went there, he was actually more concerned about another mole on my left lobe, which I just thought was a dark freckle, so they took some pictures, and looked under the skin.

"Both of them came back as Lentigo Maligna, which is like a pre-cancerous spot really.

"They said that it's a good job they cut it out when they did because once it gets into your blood stream, it's pretty serious. That was a bit of an eye opener."

Evans, who is getting married later this year, has worn a bucket hat since the start of the 2017 season to help protect his ears and skin.

He admits that he may not look the coolest golfer on the circuit, but maintains the priorities are now different.

The former Wellingborough GC champion said: "When you're an amateur and you're young, you never put sun cream on - I never did, and things have happened to my skin. So that's where the hat has come from.

"I know it's not cool. Golf is a cool sport and everyone wants to look good. Everyone wants to wear nice clothes, the baseball cap and the flat bill because you look cool, and this hat isn't really cool but it's important for me to wear it, because it's looking after me a little bit.

"I'd love to be able to wear a baseball cap again, and there is no reason why I can't, but I'm not going to risk having a bit of protection on my ears and my head. I won't go out there now without factor 50 on, covering my arms, my face, my neck.

"The hat does a good job covering my ears and my forehead. I got a bit of stick at the start, you know 'bucket hat man', but it's different because I'm doing it more as a safety issue than anything else.

"Golf is my passion and I want to do really well at it, I want to win, but I think looking after yourself is more important really."

Building up to the Social Event of the Year

PARTY in the Gardens will celebrate a special birthday on July 20th as Wellingborough Golf Club's social event of the year takes place for the 10th time.

First set up in 2010 by Rod Gibbs, over the years, the social committee have brought diverse music to the gardens, such as Northamptonshire Concert Orchestra, and tribute bands to ABBA and Queen.

Last year was a very good Take That act called Take This, while this year the Captain's request was for a Jersey Boy's tribute so we have a great one lined up, known as The Other Guys.

To start the evening off, we have The Dave Johnson Band which features talented and exciting musicians. The finale will be a spectacular firework display.

Members, families and friends are all welcome, and can bring their own food and drink, while children under 16 are free.

Gazebos are welcome from 2pm on the day with the exception of the Captain's and greenstaff.

Spaces cannot be reserved and this applies to WGC equipment as they may be needed for set up purposes.

Tickets priced at £20 are available from the club office. This is a great social event, so please join us.

Perfect record continues for Handicap team

WELLINGBOROUGH have enjoyed a proud record in NGL team competitions in recent years as the men, ladies and seniors have claimed the plaudits in county league tournaments. With the 2019 campaign well underway, this is how our teams are getting on this season.

NGL Handicap League - Group A

Priors Hall 6
Wellingborough 8

A SECOND away victory of the campaign was earned on the back of a battling display at the Corby Club.

After Jonathan Gould and Neil Redding (two holes) won the opening game, David Simpson and Dan Barker took the third tie by four holes to give Wellingborough a healthy early advantage.

Although Priors worked their way back into the contest with three narrow wins, the contest was all square with just one match on the golf course.

Nerves may have been jangling elsewhere but not from Colin Barnes and Ciaran Eeles, who held their composure with a two-hole success for the visitors.

Kettering 0

WELLINGBOROUGH maintained their 100% start to the Group A season with a whitewash home success against a Kettering side, who came into the match in confident mood after claiming wins in their opening two home fixtures.

Despite halving the first and last games, the hosts seized controlled through Tom Houghton and Neil Morris (two holes) and Dave Wright, pictured, and Tom Marshall (four holes).

The strong Wellingborough middle order put the result beyond doubt as Ashley Connolly and Steve Coles recorded a five-hole victory.

David Hawkins and Kevin Wakenshaw added the gloss to an encouraging home performance as the pair edged a tight match by a single hole.

Ladies secure place in Cecil Leitch last eight

JUNE NGL Ladies Cecil Leitch - Group C

21

Peterborough Milton 3
Wellingborough 4

WELLINGBOROUGH made it through to the Ladies Cecil Leitch quarter-finals with one game still to play after edging a thrilling away contest with Peterborough Milton.

Big away wins from Diane Dickinson and Susan Sharp were matched by Milton victories from Myra Landsburgh and Christine Goodall, meaning the result came down to the other three ties - all of which went the distance.

Rachael Fisher was successful for Peterborough, but Liz Rees responded for the visitors.

After not playing in the home victory against Milton last month, Jane Sisman enjoyed the opportunity to take centre stage as she sealed a magnificent Wellingborough win by taking the final game against Christine Macleod.

JUNE Scratch League

8

Northants County 7
Wellingborough 1

FACING the reigning champions on their own course proved too difficult a task for Wellingborough in their opening fixture as they suffered a heavy defeat.

Roger Butler was the only visiting player to secure a win as he beat fellow veteran Brian O'Connell on the 16th hole.

Gary Grimmitt and Jon Harris (pictured right), came closest to grabbing something, in the first and last games, before both lost on the final hole.

JUNE Intermediate League

9

Wellingborough 1
Northampton 7 at Cold Ashby

WELLINGBOROUGH were no match for last year's runners-up as they failed to win any of the eight matches.

Dave Wright and Tim Veal managed to grab a half apiece on the Ashby slopes, but with none of the other six games reaching the 18th tee, Northampton were comfortable winners.

Four matches without defeat for Seniors team

MAY
30 Seniors Friendlies
Wellingborough 4
The Bedfordshire 4

TWO big home wins from David Wynn and Peter Davies (6&5) and Lou Everard and Peter Hooton (6&4) were the exception rather than the rule for the home side as a tight encounter finished all square.

Although Andrew Charter, pictured below, and David Rawson (2&1) and Iain Campbell and Richard Briggs (two holes) came out on top for Wellingborough, the remaining four close games went the way of the visitors.

JUNE
3 Wellingborough 5
Staverton Park 3

SENIORS Team Captain Peter Gannon and Ray Walker led by example with a 3&2 victory in the opening tie against their Northamptonshire rivals.

Graham Thompson and Iain Campbell (6&5), Richard Greenbank and Martin Cooke (3&2) and Peter Davies and John Briggs (5&4) were also successful.

The Wellingborough victory was sealed with a 2&1 success from Nick Palmer and Andrew Charter.

JUNE
17 Wellingborough 5½
Overstone Park 2½

POINTS from Peter Gannon and Bob Lewis (2&1) and Chris Dickens and Stephen Townsend (4&2), plus a half, in the opening three ties set the platform for a solid team performance.

Andrew Charter and Richard Greenbank (3&2) added another Wellingborough win, Iain Campbell and David Birkett impressed with a 5&4 success, while Steve Maycock and Steve Hughes wrapped up a good day on the 18th hole.

JUNE
24 Beds & County 4
Wellingborough 4

WELLINGBOROUGH came up just short in their bid for a first away victory since early April as a fluctuating contest ended all square.

Ian Jolly and Edward Roderick (5&3), Andrew Charter and Peter Davies (5&4) and Martin Cooke and Chris Dickens (7&6) were all in magnificent form for the visitors.

Steve Maycock and Peter Hooton added another Wellingborough point, but two narrow defeats in the last two games meant honours were shared.

Keeping you fully informed

'OUR aim is to keep you fully informed about everything that is happening at the Club from social events to competitions, with news from all sections'.

That was the message from Club Captain Bill Morgan when Wellingborough Club News was launched in March 2011.

Since then, the publication has gone through a few modifications including a change of editor and a change of title, but that simple objective has remained the same, including in this 100th edition.

Over the years, we have heard from Captains Andrew Woods, Kevin Owen, Peter Clarke, Kevin Knight, Richard Munns, Nick Clansey, Martin Wall and George Khaw. We've even let the Vice Captain have a word or two!

Ladies Captains Jackie Mudd, Anne Evans, Jackie Banks, Liz Waine, Gill Spencer, Pat Wilson, Marianne Price, Mary MacLaren and Sally McKeown have kept you up-to-date with all their latest news.

New from the Seniors section has been forthcoming and there has always been an emphasis to push the next generation of club members by promoting the Junior section.

We have covered the 125th anniversary celebrations, the various Glazerite Trophy events, Party in the Gardens, Summer Ball, Murder Mystery Nights, Gin Tasting, Whisky Tasting and Mexican Fiesta.

Professionals David Clifford and James Whittemore have had their say, while the exploits of Touring professionals Simon Lilly, Ryan Evans, Meghan MacLaren and Kyson Lloyd have been documented.

We've highlighted Charity Appeals and Charity Days, we've reviewed all the 1893 Club Courses and we've reported on all the Men's, Ladies, Seniors and Junior competitions.

At county level, we've followed our players when they have won the Men's and Ladies Scratch Leagues, Hollingsworth Trophy, Handicap League, County Championships and other individual, pairs and team events.

During this time, there has been a new golf simulator, a new lounge and bar, new changing rooms and new bunkers, plus a new significant piece of history of course, with the discovery of the real value of the Wolsey Angels.

On occasions, we've needed to inform about club members that have sadly passed away or left the Golf Club for pastures new.

To brighten up the pages, we have included some fabulous photographs of the golf course, the clubhouse, the grounds, golfers and non-golfers.

We have covered all this and a lot more over the hundred editions and we will continue to do so in the future.

Thank you for all the support.

WGC Magazine Editor - Steve Jackson.

Lessons are being learnt to last a lifetime

CLUB Junior Organiser Nigel Grimmitt said: "Junior golf is blossoming at Wellingborough Golf Club with the introduction of regular coaching sessions with Club Professional James Whittemore and a much improved attendance at our Junior Sunday Stableford competitions and junior club events.

"We have seen a gradual uptake in new junior membership over the last few months and our new grass roots coaching facilities are helping to enable our current juniors to progress over a sustained period of development into confident junior club golfers.

"Our junior members have been coached to take full notice of our club etiquette. I am proud to say, as organiser, our juniors have responded so positively to the main points of course/club etiquette."

DO

- Check the notice board before play for any local or temporary rules that may be in place.
- Switch your mobile phone to silent whilst on the course, you may carry it for use in the event of an emergency only.
- Show courtesy and consideration for others at all times.
- Be aware if you have lost a clear hole on the match in front; invite the group behind you to play through.
- Be ready to play immediately when it is your turn.
- Learn the rules of golf, rule books are available from the secretary and committee members.
- Behave in a sportsmanlike way, don't throw clubs or make unnecessary noise on the course.
- Rake the bunker after use, and leave the rake in the bunker.
- Be careful when removing and replacing the flagsticks. If you attend a flag ensure that your feet are well away from the hole to avoid damage.
- Replace all divots and repair pitch marks on the greens.
- Repair spike damage only after completing the hole.
- Wait for those in front to move out of range.
- Whilst on the green use a pitch mark reparer and repair pitch marks, your own and one other.

DO NOT

- Drag your feet on the greens this causes damage.
- Lean on your putter or the flagstick.
- Walk on your fellow competitor's line.
- Distract a player by moving or making a noise while they are playing.
- Stand behind a player or behind the hole as he plays.
- Wheel trolleys between the greenside bunkers and the green, on the green or tee-box.

Play the Game

Our Juniors understand that honesty is very important in golf as it in life itself, it is a game of trust. Our Juniors are their own policeman. If you cheat, you cheat yourself and betray the trust of other players. Once lost, trust is very difficult to regain.
