Summer highlights package is mounting up

WE are again blessed with good weather.

On the day of the Wellingborough Cup, we were presented with a golf course to make us proud as we introduced the inaugural Althorp-Princess Kaiulani Trophy awarded to the winning club. This will be contested next year at Northampton GC.

Congratulations to Chris Howes on winning the Club Championship, as he became only second person to achieve a 'Grand Slam' of Rabbit, Charles Griffiths Bowl and Club Championship titles.

For the Captain's Weekend Away at Hilton Puckrup Hall, Tewkesbury in early July, we enjoyed three days of great weather and a course in very good condition, particularly the last two holes.

Everything went very smoothly - it was a nice ambiance all round and the Hilton staff did us proud.

We had a mix of prizes for Friday and Saturday and on Sunday it was an individual competition won by Andy Redding with 43 points. The cumulative winner for the weekend was Mark Lacey.

I was pleased to be invited to the Past Captains Trophy competition, which was won by Kevin Knight from Mike Billson by one point, with Richard Munns in third.

Party in the Gardens went very well with the weather holding and everyone enjoying themselves.

The warm-up band Dave Johnson & Friends played jazz and 12-bar blues and other popular music, while The Jersey Boys tribute band The Other Guys were amazing - I am glad we chose them to play as the main attraction. They both brought the members out dancing.

The professional sound system provided by Anthony Foreman made a lot of difference to the superb sound quality belting out from the stage.

Both the Lady Captain and myself were very grateful to Pete Clarke, Roger Mudd and Brian Joyce of the First Squadron Zookeepers for presenting us with a cheque on the stage (pictured above) for an amount of £3,000 for our joint charities.

Grateful thanks to Paul Sisman and his grandson Charlie for working so hard on the whole weekend, Peter Clarke for providing the trailer for our stage, Jack and his dad for providing the generator and the lighting and Dave Hawkins for making the stage steps for present and future use.

Thanks to the Social Committee, Chris Reading, Andy Gallagher, Martin Wall, Roy Pouncey and Sally McKeown, to everyone who attended and to all the Staff at WGC.

Our next event is the Captain's Charity Shield on Friday, August 23rd, so please contact Dave Hawkins if you want to play by emailing davehawkins215@hotmail.co.uk.

Please enjoy your golf and be lucky - stay away from the Captain's Bunker and Out of Bounds on the 18th Hole.

2019 Club Captain, George Khaw

It's a hard life being a Tour professional... honestly!

WITH club pro Kyson Lloyd having held a golf day at Wellingborough in July to help raise funds to cover his Tour expenses, it's important to remember that it's not an easy life for these golfers.

To earn a living, Lloyd has resorted to caddying for an 83 year old, Ryan Evans is playing golf on ski slopes, while Meghan MacLaren has taken a summer job in Northern Ireland!

So perhaps we don't need to be too sympathetic!

But, all joking apart, our Tour professionals are doing a fantastic job representing Wellingborough on the world stage.

So perhaps next time you see them, say 'hello, well done and thanks'.

Hats off to everyone for making it a special day

LADIES Captain Sally McKeown (pictured right) said: "What a month it has been. We started off with Lady Captain's Day on July 2nd. My theme was the Mad Hatter's Tea Party.

"Many of the Ladies supported my theme and came along to the meal in the evening with a fantastic array of hats (pictured below). The prizes were loosely on the theme too.

"The following week saw the Ladies Club Championships on Tuesday and Wednesday, with the Wells Cup also being played on Tuesday.

"Mary MacLaren won the Ladies Championship with a fantastic gross score, and the Wells Cup was won by Sue Joyce.

"Judith and Doug Chapman kindly hosted a Vintage Tea Party in their garden to raise funds for my charity, Headway and George's charity, Wellibus.

"It was a truly wonderful event with around 80 people attending, the weather was superb and the atmosphere was very happy.

"The Ladies Committee all worked together well with the preparation of the food and serving later, and then the inevitable clearing away as £1,000 was raised for the charities.

"Next came Party in the Gardens. Both bands were very good and everybody seemed to be having a good time. Roger Mudd presented a cheque for my charity and George's, from money raised at the Jazz afternoon in June.

"I am looking forward to my Lady Captain's Holiday at the end of July, when we are going to Bicester Hotel Golf and Spa. I hope that we have a good time, with good weather. Mind you, what goes on in Bicester will stay in Bicester!!"

Record attendance for Party in the Gardens

A HUGE thank you to the social committee for this year's successful Party in the Gardens with our biggest turnout of members, friends and kids to date.

The weather was again kind with the threat of rain not materialising.

The first set was kicked off by Dave Johnson and friends with their interpretation of well-known songs that featured bass, drum, guitar and keyboard instrumentals.

Route 66 will never be the same again. They would still be playing now if we had let them!

During the interval, Roger Mudd presented the Captains with a cheque for £3000 towards their chosen charities. Thank you Roger on behalf of the Captains.

Then the moment came when our main act The Jersey Boys came on to loud cheers, and they did not let the crowds down.

The lads put on two fantastic sets which had the dance floor packed throughout the gig and the evening ended with a spectacular firework display by Pops and Bangs.

Thanks to David Waite for his support, along with the work Christine puts in.

Well done to John, and son Jack for the new electric's this year, Steve Mac and his greenstaff including Don, and Debbie the gardener's as well as A-Teck sound system.

But most of all a big thanks to those who turned out and had a great evening. Let's do it all again next year.

2019 Club Championship Weekend

CHRIS Howes claimed his maiden victory in the 2019 Men's Club Championship as he led from start-to-finish in the 36-hole tournament to secure a three shot success.

The Scratch team golfer (pictured putting) never looked back after carding a birdie three on the opening hole as he posted a score of 73 on the first day to lead by a single shot from former champion Mark Davis.

Any nerves were quickly dispelled 24 hours later as Howes started his final round with birdies on the first, fourth and sixth holes, before bouncing back from trouble on the 10th with a run of three successive birdies in a closing 71.

As Davis dropped out of the reckoning, Tiger Adams came through to bag second as scores of 75 and 72 kept him a couple of shots clear of fast-finishing Dany Reid.

The Charles Griffith Bowl witnessed a thrilling conclusion as Carl Leeson held off the challenge of Charlie Higgins by just one stroke, thanks to rounds of 82 and 83.

William Wilkins collected the Rabbits Cup with a magnificent net 68 on Sunday.

Mary MacLaren (pictured right) lifted the Ladies Club Championship trophy for the second time with a dominant 18-shot victory over two days.

After posting three birdies in a two-over-par 77 to lead by nine after the opening round, the Irish Ladies international was a model of consistency on the second day as she dropped just two shots in a round of 76.

Gill Snelson held on to second by four strokes from Carol Gibbs, while Miriam Johnson had the pleasure of lifting the new Intermediate Division Trophy.

Sue Kellett was the outstanding player in the Bronze Division as she finished nine ahead of Margaret Payne, while Sue A Joyce collected the Wells Cup by a single point.

Scratch and Handicap teams find top form

WELLINGBOROUGH have enjoyed a proud record in NGL team competitions in recent years as the men, ladies and seniors have claimed the plaudits in county league tournaments. With the 2019 campaign well underway, this is how our teams are getting on this season.

NGL Scratch League

Wellingborough 4½
Northampton 3½

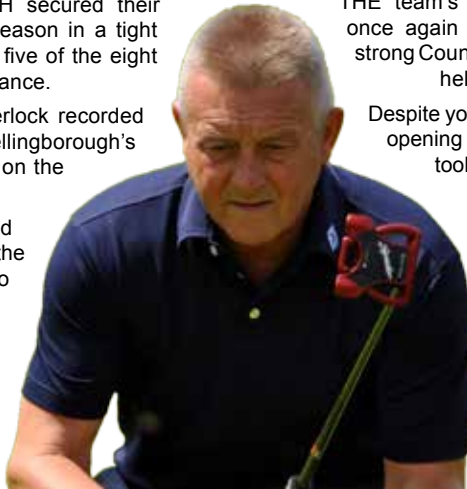

Wellingborough 4
Northants County 4

WELLINGBOROUGH secured their first victory of the season in a tight home contest when five of the eight games went the distance.

Although Adam Sherlock recorded a 4&2 victory, Wellingborough's other wins all came on the 18th hole.

Roger Butler grabbed his fourth victory on the spin over the last two years, Mark Davis and Jon Harris also came good, before Tim Veal (pictured right) secured a vital half point for the team.

THE team's strength of character was once again emphasised at home to a strong County line-up as Wellingborough held the defending champions.

Despite young Theo Brown bagging the opening point for the hosts, County took control of the match thanks to four solid wins.

With all the remaining three games going the distance, Wellingborough responded with points from Richard Brown and Chris Howes, before Harris grabbed a share of the spoils with another victory down the closing hole.

NGL Handicap League

Peterborough Milton 7
Wellingborough 8

Wellingborough 20
Oundle 0

THREE away outings. Three victories. That's the position Wellingborough find themselves in as the team continue their impressive start to the campaign.

The visitors looked in command early on thanks to a four-hole success for Jonathan Gould and Neil Redding in the opening tie, and a win by the same margin from Tom Marshall and Andy Redding in game three.

But with Milton cutting the deficit to just one point, Wellingborough needed halves from David Hawkins (pictured right) and Kevin Knight in the fifth game and Mark Hawkins and Ciaran Eeles in the final tie to secure a brilliant team win.

WELLINGBOROUGH enjoyed a far more comfortable victory in their fifth outing of the year as they strolled to a home whitewash.

Neil Redding and Paul Redding (four holes), Tom Marshall and Andy Redding (five holes), Steve Coles and Ashley Connolly (five holes) and Mark Hawkins and Ciaran Eeles (six holes) bagged the points.

Ladies make it two wins in two

NGL Ladies Intermediate League

Overstone Park 1
Wellingborough 4
at Whittlebury Park GC

WELLINGBOROUGH are the only team with a 100% winning record this season as they defeated previously-unbeaten Overstone.

Gill Snelson, pictured right with former Ryder Cup player Barry Lane, set the tone with a thumping 7&6 victory in the opening tie.

Although Miriam Johnson lost a tight contest, Ida Jane Huggins safely confirmed the team's second win of the campaign with a 4&3 success.

JULY

NGL Ladies Cecil Leitch - Group C

Northants County 7
Wellingborough 1

LIZ Rees was the only visiting player to return to Elton Furze's clubhouse (pictured below) with a point under her belt as she earned a one-hole win in a 6-1 defeat in the final Group C outing.

With top spot already guaranteed following three victories in their previous three matches, Wellingborough will now face a tricky quarter-final as they take on Group D runners-up, and last year's champions, Oundle on Tuesday, August 13th.

Quarter Finals:

Oundle v Wellingborough
Cold Ashby v Whittlebury Park
Kettering v Overstone Park
Elton Furze v Northampton

JULY

NGL Ladies Scratch League

Northants County 0
Wellingborough 3 at Northampton GC

A PLACE in the Scratch League Final was confirmed in unsatisfactory circumstances as Wellingborough's Ladies were handed a walkover.

With County having won their previous two games, anticipation was high amongst the Wellingborough players for the top-of-the-table clash only for their rivals to fail to raise a team of three ladies.

The forfeit may prove costly for County since Overstone will claim the other spot in the Final if they are successful in their last two games against Northampton and Wellingborough.

Seniors Friendlies

Luffenham Heath 5
Wellingborough 3

THE team came up just short in their efforts to grab a draw on the picturesque course in Rutland as they were made to pay for losing the opening four ties.

Wins from Bob Lewis and Graham Thompson (one hole), Nick Palmer and David Birkett (6&5) and Peter Hooton and Chris Dickens (5&4) gave Wellingborough hope of sharing the spoils.

Richard Briggs and Steve Maycock were unable to complete the away team comeback however as they were beaten in the closing game.

Scraptoft 2½
Wellingborough 3½

WELLINGBOROUGH were successful at overturning an early deficit on the Leicestershire course with an impressive comeback.

Despite defeats in the opening two ties, the visitors stayed composed as Graham Bayes and David Rawson (3&1), Peter Davies and Graham Thompson (5&4) and Peter Hooton and Steve Maycock (3&1) bagged wins, before Huw Rees and David Wynn secured a winning half.

Gog Magog 4½
Wellingborough 3½

A THIRD consecutive away match Wellingborough involved in another tight contest.

Captain Peter Gannon and Peter Davies (pictured) took the opening tie on the 18th hole, but the home side bagged the next two points.

Huw Rees and Steve Hughes (4&3) and John Arnott and Graham Bayes (3&1) were both successful for Wellingborough, but a half from Andrew Charter and Gerald Bristow meant the team fell just short of a draw.

Youngsters produce battling performance in opener

JULY

NGL Junior League

Northants County 3
Wellingborough 1

AN under-strength Wellingborough junior line-up didn't quite have enough to grab anything in their opening Group D match at the Church Brampton course.

Despite being one player down, Jack Meakin (pictured right) gave Wellingborough hope when he levelled the overall match score with a stunning 6&4 away victory.

Theo Brown, who was giving several shots to his opponent, and Olivia Barby couldn't secure another victory however as they both lost tight matches.

Willey passes Lilly to claim 2019 Glazerite Trophy

ANDREW Willey was the standout performer in the MPGA Glazerite Trophy at Wellingborough GC as he compiled the leading 36-hole mark of 138.

The Oakmere Park professional (pictured) dropped just one shot in a three-under-par 69 in the morning, before repeating the score in the afternoon with the help of six birdies.

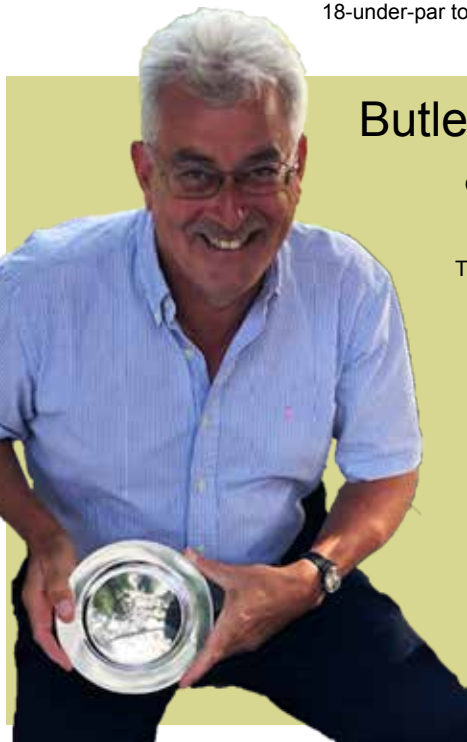

James Brittain (Matthew Lea Golf Academy), who leads Willey in the Midlands Order of Merit, finished two adrift in second place after adding a round of 68 to his opening 72.

Former Wellingborough pro Simon Lilly, who is a past champion of the Glazerite Trophy, led at the half way stage on 68.

But the birdie touch deserted him until too late in round two as he had to settle for a share of third.

Lilly was also in good form the following day in the Pro-Am as he carded 70 to finish runner-up in the individual category to Burton On Trent's Ben Jenks, who smashed seven birdies in a superb 65.

The team prize went to Mike Brennan's side with a 18-under-par total.

Butler is the King in Belgium

CLUB member Roger Butler enjoyed his competitive golfing trip to Belgium as he won the gross prize in the King Leopold Challenge over three days.

The biennial seniors four-man team event, which was first played for in 1958, took place at Royal Hainault GC and Mont Garni GC.

It attracted golfers from the home country, Canada, France, Germany, Portugal, Luxembourg, Netherlands and South Africa, as well as a couple of teams from the UK.

The former NGL President, who has been in good form for the Wellingborough Scratch League team over the last two years, explained: "Although it is a team event they run individual net and gross prizes.

"The last round I shot six birdies around Royal Hainault GC, scoring 39 points to win the overall gross prize."
